Senate Passes the House Search and Seizure Proposition.

NOT A VOTE CAST AGAINST IT

Measure Fixing Salaries For County Prosecutors Goes Through the House—Compensation of Judges Cut. Metzger Franchise Bill Considered and Sent to Calendar.

Columbus, O., Feb. 21.—By unanimous vote the senate passed the search and seizure bill of Representative Woods, and which was passed by the house. It permits a search for "speakeasies" in "dry" territory.

The senate passed two bills offered by Mr. Rose, one reducing the compensation of common pleas judges $500, and the other reducing salaries of circuit court judges from $6,000 to $5,000. Mr. Patterson's bill also was passed. It places the burden of proof upon bonding and surety companies in suits brought to collect on bonds.

Mr. O'Rourke's house resolution requesting Ohio's representatives in congress to support railroad rate legislation desired by the president was adopted by the senate. The Paxton house resolution extending congratulations to Nick Longworth on his marriage was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Pollock introduced a bill amending the law as to pool selling by providing that the forfeiture of amount of money that has been lost is the only penalty enforceable. It provides that state auditor shall issue license for race meetings to be held in the state from June to November, on the first of June of each year. Under its provisions one per cent of the purses offered is to be paid to the state board of agriculture. The bill is patterned after the New York law on the subject.

Bills introduced in the senate: Mr. Atwell, requiring all special teachers in kindergarten to be certified by county boards of school examiners before entering upon their duties; Mr. Brandt, making it mandatory for school boards to appoint library trustees; Mr. Rathburn, providing that when claims are presented to an insolvent estate it will not be necessary to file them; Mr. Meek, providing a fee of $2 a day for juries before justices of the peace; Mr. Vanover, requiring state fire marshal to file annual reports.

Salaries of county prosecutors are fixed by the Conroy bill, which passed the house. The bill as passed provides that prosecutors shall receive in counties whose population does not exceed 20,000 inhabitants $6 for each 100 inhabitants or fraction thereof; and in addition, in counties containing from 20,000 to 30,000 inhabitants, $4 for each 100 inhabitants over 20,000 or fraction thereof, and in addition, in counties containing more than 30,000 inhabitants, 50 cents for each 100 inhabitants over 30,000 or fraction thereof; which number of inhabitants shall be determined by the next preceding federal census. The bill passed by a vote of 99 to 12. The salaries in the five leading counties under the bill as passed will be as follows: Cuyahoga, $5,395; Hamilton, $3,245; Franklin, $4,020; Lucas, $2,965; Montgomery, $2,850.

Other bills passed by the house: S. B. Mr. Russell, providing that county prosecutors may appear before supreme court and that either prosecutor or attorney general may appear in court of appeal on criminal cases; S. B. Mr. Howe, to keep voting polls open in all cities from 5.30 a. m. to 5.30 p. m.

The house, in committee of the whole, considered the Metzger street railroad franchise bill, and it was placed at the foot of the calendar. Mayor Johnson appeared in support of the bill, while delegations of Cleveland and Columbus business men opposed it.

Miss Hudson also stated that Lechner was a prince of good fellows, at times spending money lavishly for suits, hats and the finest kinds of lingerie. The suit is of such a character as to pack the court room and standing room has been at a premium.

Loyal Members of the Local Woodmen Lodge Journeyed to Kenton

LAST NIGHT AND PARTICIPATED IN THE DOINGS.

THE VISITORS WERE GIVEN A ROYAL RECEPTION—THE LODGE ROOMS WERE TOO SMALL TO ACCOMMODATE THE CROWD.

One of the biggest events in lodge circles in the history of Kenton was that of the Modern Woodmen of America last night. It was the intention to hold the initiation services in the lodge room, but the number of visitors present made it necessary to hold the session in the Armory.

The Lima degree staff performed their work well and every one of the fifty candidates initiated got his money's worth twice over. One hundred and sixty-one members of the local lodge were in attendance and were royally entertained by the Kenton brothers.

Charge Against Ed. Heckethorn

ARRESTED LAST NIGHT FOR ATTEMPTING TO PASS A FIFTY CENT COUNTERFEIT COIN.

Edward Heckethorn, who has occupied space in the city's bad reputation more than any other man in Lima, excepting Samuel Shockey, was arrested again last night. Edward is usually chalked up "drunk," but this morning the police records showed another charge. This time he was picked up for attempting to pass a counterfeit fifty cent piece.

SHULTZ,

Who Was Arrested Charged With

STEALING COLONEL HOBART'S RAILROAD CROSSING WAS DISMISSED THIS MORNING.

The Shultz was arrested a few days ago charged with having stolen a portion of the Columbus & Lake Michigan railroad. To be specific, a railroad crossing was carted away and sold for old junk. The case came up for hearing this morning and the prosecuting witness fell down. He said he supposed the wagon used in hauling the junk away belonged to Shultz, but failed to recognize the prisoner this morning as the guilty party, hence the dismissal.

VERY

Angry are the Traveling Men

Arrested Monday Night at the Lima House.

CLAIM THEY HAD MONEY ENOUGH TO GET OUT OF JAIL, BUT WERE HELD IN THE LOUSY, FILTHY PLACE ALL NIGHT.

It isn't often that such distinguished guests are entertained at the city's best—men with several hundred dollars on their person and wearing diamonds that would dazzle an arc light. Such was the case Monday night, however. It happened this way.

C. D. Stewart and David Howard, two jolly traveling men, had been stopping at the Lima House. They decided on Monday to leave on the midnight train and claim that they gave up their room after supper and requested the night clerk, Mr. Ream, to have their luggage brought down. They killed time as some traveling men do, patronizing the bar, and while not real drunk, were feeling pretty good. When the time arrived to settle their bills, they claim that Mr. Ream had charged them for the unoccupied room. They refused to pay the extra dollar and exchanged words with the clerk, who telephoned for the police and caused their arrest. When they reached police headquarters they expressed themselves as being willing to furnish bail for their appearance, but this was denied by Sergeant Armstrong, who kept them in jail until the next morning.

The two defendants failed to appear in police court this afternoon, but instead sent their attorney down to settle the matter. The costs in the case were paid and the case dismissed.

INQUIRY

Into the Oil Business And the Relation of the Railroads Thereto.

PROVIDED FOR IN THE HOUSE RESOLUTION—A SUPREME COURT DECISION THAT SEEMS TO BE OPPORTUNE.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 21.—The House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce authorized a favorable report today upon a resolution which contemplates a sweeping investigation of coal and oil carrying railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The resolution is a merger of three separate measures that have been introduced in Congress in the last fortnight. Two of them, offered respectively by Representative Tillman, of Texas, and Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, proposed an inquiry as to whether common carriers or employees thereof were interested in the business of mining coal, while the third, offered yesterday by Representative Campbell, of Kansas, provided for an investigation of the relations between the oil business and the railroads. The Tillman resolution having already been adopted by the Senate, it is a foregone conclusion that the investigation will be ordered by the President, inasmuch as the House will pass the amended measure tomorrow. The Senate, beyond all doubt, will concur in the modified resolution. It is expected the investigation will disclose conditions which may lead to immediate remedial legislation and possibly result in criminal or civil actions against violators of the interstate commerce act.

The resolution as perfected by the committee today, requests the President to direct the Interstate Commerce Commission to inquire, investigate and report immediately to him for information of Congress as follows: "Railroad discriminations and monopolies in coal and oil."

The decision of the United States Supreme Court yesterday in the case of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in which it was held that no railroad can give preference in rates to itself as a dealer in coal or any other commodity, appears to be very opportune in this connection. The investigation which is asked for by the resolution is calculated to show that other railroads have been discriminating in favor of themselves or subsidiary companies in the matter of commodities in whose production or manufacture they are directly or indirectly interested. The Court's decision is a source of a great deal of satisfaction to members of the House and Senate who have been urging investigations of the collateral connections of railroads.

SALE

of Seats for The Eisteddfod

TOMORROW MORNING, AFTERNOON AND NIGHT OPENED THIS MORNING AND WERE SOLD OUT IN ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES.

The Faurot Opera House will be packed tomorrow morning, afternoon and evening by the music loving people of this city and this section of the state to listen to the Eisteddfod to be heard under the auspices of the Lima Choral Society.

What seats were open for reservation were disposed of in about fifteen minutes this morning. Three hundred seats have been reserved for the singers, the boxes have been reserved, but the rest of the house will be left open and the first ones there at each session will be the first served.

MAYOR ROBB SEEMS DETERMINED TO HAVE A PLAIN VIEW.—MAT SCULLY FINED $10 AND COSTS.

Mayor Robb seems determined to enforce the ordinance requiring all saloonists to draw the blinds on Sunday so that anyone can get a plain view of the interior. Many of the saloon proprietors have ignored this law, and have conducted a Sunday business, the police being unable to get at them.

Mat Scully, who conducts a saloon at the corner of Main and McKibben streets, was on the carpet this morning and received a fine of $10 and costs for his negligence.

EMPLOYEES Of the Western Ohio Railway

ATTEND THE FUNERAL OF M. STEIN THIS MORNING, RETURNING HOME THIS AFTERNOON.

All of the employees of the Western Ohio Railroad in this city left this morning at eight o'clock on a special car for Piqua, where they attended the funeral at ten o'clock this morning of the late M. Stein, the young man killed in the head end collision last Monday morning.

PATTISON FEELS WELL.
Columbus, O., Feb. 21.—In spite of the reports of the illness of Gov. Pattison, Secretary Houck said today that the governor is feeling quite well. "I visited him this morning," said Secretary Houck, "and he apparently was as well as yesterday. He is certainly no worse, and I don't see where the renewed reports of a back set came from. They are untrue."

Chicago, Feb. 21.—In the packers' case, Commissioner of Corporations Garfield took the stand, denying many of the statements made by the witnesses for the packers during the hearing of the immunity pleas now in progress. Edward Morris, Edward Swift and Arthur Meeker all testified that Commissioner Garfield had told them that his department had the power to compel information if they refused to give it willingly. Mr. Garfield testified that he had never made such a statement. He also denied that he had ever promised immunity to the packers, saying that the only protection that had been promised was protection for the individual figures of their confidential figures. This, he said, had been given them, and although the average of these confidential figures had been given in the report of the commissioner on the beef industry, individuals had been respected and their names had not been given. He also denied positively that he promised that all information would be regarded as confidential. He also denied that he had at any time said anything regarding an oath in connection with the investigation. Mr. Garfield was the first witness for the government, the packers having rested their case.

Attorney John S. Miller for the packers read the letter of President Roosevelt to Attorney General Moody, which was authenticated some time ago by the attorney general. This is the letter which declared that the department of corporations and the department of justice were working together in the beef investigation. Attorney General Moody, when in Chicago some time ago, admitted that the letter had been written by the president, but claimed that the statement of collusion between the two departments was incorrect. The attorneys argued at length regarding the admission of the letter, the prosecution opposing it, and the court said: "The letter is material in this case as the issue is to know whether the matters were turned over to the department of justice, and I think the letter should be admitted as evidence."

WOOL BILL SIGNED TODAY.
Columbus, O., Feb. 21.—The existing laws providing for the search and seizure of gambling houses without any fear of counteraction, the laws under which Chief Kohler has presumed to break up gambling paraphernalia in Cleveland, will now apply to "speak easies" and "blind tigers" in every dry village or residence district in the state. Without a dissenting vote the senate this afternoon passed the Wood house search and seizure bill, backed by the Anti-Saloon league. Gov. Pattison will sign the bill tomorrow. Senator Hafner of Cincinnati was the only one who spoke against the bill, and his words fell upon deaf ears. Following his speech he turned around and supported the measure. A throng of visitors rooted for the bill while the roll was being called and were sharply rebuked by Lieut. Gov. Harris.

Alice and Nick Sail From Port Tampa.
Greeting of Natives.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 21.—Representative and Mrs. Longworth arrived here on the private car Elysian and proceeded directly to Port Tampa, there boarding the steamer for Havana to spend part of their honeymoon in Cuba. At the city station a large crowd gathered and the Cuban consul, F. P. Mendoza, presented to Mrs. Longworth a magnificent floral design emblematic of the friendship of Cubans for herself and her father, President Roosevelt.

Deny Discrimination Charge.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate listened for three hours to a discussion of the details of the pure food bill. A number of minor amendments were suggested. Mr. Rayner presented by request a reply from the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company to the charges of discrimination made against it by the Red Rock Fuel company of West Virginia. The communication was signed by Vice President Bond, who declared that there had been no discrimination; that the Red Rock company was treated as were all others, and that to meet its requirements was impossible for lack of equipment.

For People, Not For Bosses Legislators Are Laboring

Passing of Graft-Driven Old Regime Noted in Results Already Accomplished.

MUCH GOOD YET TO COME.

Howe Franchise Tax Matter to Test Strength Which Defied Opposition to Two-Cent Fare Law.

FOR CONSCIENTIOUS MEN.

Columbus, Feb. 21.—Legislation is hard, tedious work—FOR CONSCIENTIOUS MEN. That is why comparatively few of the more than 500 bills introduced have been passed by the general assembly.

In past years the task has been easy. Everybody knew three weeks after the election in November what important bills would be passed during the session. Political managers made up the program. It was cut and dried and hung on the outer wall where all could see. It was not a question of what the people wanted, rather what the party wanted, in reality for themselves, but in the name of the party.

Hitherto when a puzzled legislator asked for time in which to consult "his constituents" it meant, as a rule, that he desired to talk it over with the bosses.

This year, more than ever before, it means that he desires to hear from home.

No Boss to Boost.

At this session there is nobody at hand to guarantee his return to the legislature or to reward him with a state office or a government appointment if he votes "right."

Members have had to study problems and act as they thought best for the public interest. Mistakes may have been made, and may be made in the future—possibly big ones. To balance any such errors there is promise of a record of more good legislation than ever before.

This legislature has passed a two-cent fare railroad bill; it has passed a bill depriving county auditors of their one per cent graft on the public school funds; the senate part of it has created a Lexow committee for Cincinnati.

Everyone knows how much these three things are in the interest of the people and how little they meet the wishes of the political bosses and grafters.

Results of Freedom.

This legislature will enact a county salary law. That it will not meet with the approval of all the people goes without saying, but that it will be 100 per cent better than if its provisions were dictated by some political bosses is equally true. It will also enact a banking law which if it is not all that the people want, will at least be better for the public than what they now have.

Bigger than all the other things which this legislature may do or has done—it may enact a law taxing franchise values, worth many millions which have always been untaxed in this state.

A bill to do this is now pending in the senate, introduced by Senator Howe of Cuyahoga. If passed it will relieve the people of paying taxes aggregating $2,800,000 and will place a tax burden of $3,600,000 on the immensely wealthy public service corporations.

This bill will be desperately fought by corporations, such as steam and electric railroads, gas and water companies, express, telephone, telegraph companies and the like. THEY COULD SPEND $5,000,000 IN LEGISLATURE TO DEFEAT THIS MEASURE AND THEN BE MONEY AHEAD BEFORE ANOTHER LEGISLATURE WILL MEET.

Many big things are ahead of the assembly and whatever it may do that is good or bad, it is fairly safe to predict that when it adjourns, more will have been attempted FOR THE PEOPLE than in preceding legislatures for 50 years past.

COURT NEWS

Roy Linderman, whose parents live on East Elm street, was brought before Judge Miller, when that of a trial was yet among the occupants of the court house, and by him adjudged an incorrigible was yesterday brought before Judge Hutchinson, and the writ secured for his transportation to the reform farm. The lad was sentenced by the former judge, but owing to the fact that he was afflicted with a disease commonly known as itch, he could not be taken until the present time.

In Honor of Susan B. Anthony

New York, Feb. 21.—A luncheon was given at the Hotel Astor in honor of the eighty-sixth anniversary of Susan B. Anthony. It had been expected that Miss Anthony would be present, but her strength was not sufficient to permit her to come down from her home in Rochester. A message of love and greeting was sent to her. The luncheon was given by the Inter-urban Political Equality council. There were about 400 women present and several men. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt presided. One of the speakers was William M. Davis, Republican candidate for mayor of New York at the last election.

LADIES' AUXILIARY

To the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers

WILL HOLD AN INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

And in the Evening With Their Husbands and Sweethearts Will Enjoy a Dance at the Armory, to Which the Public is Invited.

Next Wednesday afternoon and evening will be an eventful season for the members of the local division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the ladies auxiliary to that organization. During the afternoon, the ladies will hold an installation of officers in the lodge rooms of Lima lodge of Elks and will serve supper in these rooms in the evening for the members of the two organizations. The events of the day will then conclude with a grand ball at the Armory. The arrangements for the different features of the day's program are quite elaborate and the ladies and engineers are both looking forward to a splendid time.

LIMA TOWN IN BRIEF.

WINEMILLER DEFEATED.

The race at the Princess rink between Harley Laver, of Piqua, and H. G. Winemiller, of Lima, was skated Saturday evening in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. Winemiller had beaten Chapman, and it is claimed said before the race that he could skate backwards faster than the Piqua lad could forwards. If such was the case he found he was mistaken. Laver passed him at the end of one and four-fifths miles, and the Lima man simply stopped skating. The time was 5 minutes and 45 seconds, which is fast work.—Piqua Call.

WILL ASSIST THE MINERS

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—The full strength of the American Federation of Labor was pledged to the cause of the miners of Pennsylvania and other state in their impending strike by Samuel Gompers, president of the federation. "I should not speak of a coal strike," said he, "I hope it will not come to that. The whole matter is in the hands of the officers of the United Mine Workers of America, and any expression should come from them. For the Federation of Labor, however, I may say that it will support every reasonable demand of the miners in every possible way."

ASSAULT AND LYNCHING

Andalusia, Ala., Feb. 21.—At midnight a negro named Pedigree forced an entrance to the home of a prominent white citizen, in the outskirts of the town, and assaulted a young lady. Early in the day a posse located the negro and he was identified by his victim. The posse started to jail with him when the negro broke away and began to run. He was quickly shot to death by members of the posse.

Explosion in a Tunnel

Bluefield, W. Va., Feb. 21.—In a premature explosion at Coalwood, John Willis and Tom Nash, both white and single, were killed instantly, and Frank Collier, son of the superintendent in charge, was seriously injured. The men were putting off a heavy blast in a tunnel under construction, connecting the railroad with one of the Coalwood coal operations.

Seven Men Caught

Morgantown, W. Va., Feb. 21.—Through an accidental explosion of dynamite at the plant of the Leckers Creek Stone and Sand company at Sturgis, eight miles north of here, one man was almost instantly killed, another fatally injured and five seriously hurt. The men had gathered around a fire to eat dinner. Near the fire were 15 sticks of dynamite, which had been placed there to thaw out a blast at a nearby limestone quarry was set off and it is thought to have caused the explosion of dynamite. All the injured were brought to Morgantown on a special train and placed in the local hospital.

Blackmail The Charge

Joint Indictment Returned By Sandusky County Grand Jury.—Five Attorneys Are Named

Fremont, O., Feb. 21.—The Sandusky county grand jury returned a joint indictment against A. Skransefjeld, Tiffin, O., W. W. Campbell of Toledo, O., and A. M. Campbell, L. J. Tukey and George Sheffer of Gibsonburg, O., all attorneys, for blackmail. The indictment contains a copy of a petition of A. Skransefjeld vs. George Lang for $9,000 for the alienation of the affections of Mrs. Eustinger. The indictment alleges the petition was taken by the attorneys to the home of Lang, read to him, and there unlawfully and maliciously they extorted from him the sum of $4,500 to settle the case without publicity.

BREATHITT COUNTY FRAY

Owingsville, Ky., Feb. 21.—A report from Cane Creek, Breathitt county, states that Henry Turner shot and killed his father-in-law, Elsie Howard. The men quarreled over the division of corn owned jointly by them. Howard attempted to take the corn from Turner's possession. This was resisted by Turner, who shot his father-in-law through the brain, killing him instantly. Turner escaped and has not been captured.

Must Buy Councilmen, Says President Brailey, To Obtain Franchises

Columbus, Feb. 21.—The Home Telephone company of Toledo, representing the independent telephone lines of the state, had a hearing before the cities committee of the house last night, and declared their utter lack of faith in the fairness and integrity of councilmen in dealing with corporations.

"It's absolutely impossible to get fair treatment from city councils," said James S. Brailey, president of the Home Telephone company of Toledo, "except in one way—and you all know what that is—and then the people get the worst of it. I have seen informed repeatedly when coun-

GRIP CURED

His doctor unable to aid him, Mr. W. A. Ruth, of Bridgeville, Del., after he had given up hope began to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It cured him in one week. In writing he says:

Last winter I contracted a severe case of Grip, and my doctor did not aid me. I was in despair. My druggist told me there was nothing like Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to drive the Grip out of one's system, and it was just one week after I began to use your medicine before I fully recovered from this terrible plague. I heartily recommend Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey to every one who is suffering from Grip or colds. W. A. RUTH, Bridgeville, Del.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Grip, Bronchitis and Pneumonia. It is used in over two-thirds of the hospitals as the most valuable tonic stimulant known in medicine. It builds up the system, cures the blood, aids digestion, builds up the nerve tissue, tones up the heart, and fortifies the system against disease germs. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey prolongs life, keeps the old young and the young strong. It contains no toxic oil and is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee.

CAUTION.—There is but one Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Sold by druggists and grocers—$2.00 a bottle—in sealed bottles only, never in bulk. Insist on having the genuine, and see that the stop over the cork is unbroken. Refuse all cheap substitutes, as they are put up only for profit and are positively injurious to the health. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label. Medical booklet and doctors' advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, New York.

PROPOSITION

Made to Germany on Behalf of the French Government.

Copenhagen, Feb. 21.—Baron De Courcel, who represented the French government at the funeral of King Christian, tried to obtain an agreement with Germany on the Moroccan question by using French financial influence. He offered on behalf of the French government to open the Paris bourse to dealings in German industrial shares, thus reversing the recent refusal of France to accede to the request of great German electrical companies to get their shares quoted in Paris. Baron De Courcel offered to permit dealings in these or other German industrial products Germany would agree to give France a free hand in Morocco. It is stated that Emperor William was taken aback, but later seemed inclined to consider the offer.

No War Talk Heard.

Paris, Feb. 21.—Notwithstanding the renewed strain in Franco-German relations growing out of the Moroccan question, public sentiment here remains entirely calm. The journals of this city, including those in the governmental interest, bitterly attack Germany's course in the Algerian conference. They agree that France has reached the limit of her concessions. However, there is no recurrence of public excitement over possibilities of war. Even the sensational newspapers make no allusion to war. La Liberté alone says: "While France wants peace, she does not want the government to show weakness before the inflexible and almost humiliating pretensions of Germany."

SNATCHED

A Tray of Fine Diamonds

AFTER SMASHING A WINDOW WITH A COUPLING PIN AND THEN DROVE AWAY WITH THE BOOTY.

Dayton, Ohio, Feb. 21.—One of the most daring robberies that has ever taken place in this city was committed tonight when two unknown men drove up in front of Andrew Aman's jewelry store, on Fifth street, in the heart of the city. One of them alighted, hurled a coupling pin wrapped in a piece of newspaper through the large plate glass window, and made an aperture through which he inserted his head and shoulders. He snatched a tray containing diamonds valued at about $4,000, returned to the buggy, and, with a sharp cut of his whip over the horse's back, plunged down the street and was soon out of sight of his pursuers.

The tray contained 26 pieces, among which was one magnificent ruby encircled by diamonds valued at $325, another containing a cluster of diamonds valued at $250. The others were all valuable stones of various descriptions.

Just after the robber got into the buggy with his booty Victor Hame, a well-known resident of the city, grabbed him, and the man shot at Hame, the bullet passing through a large plate-glass window in a confectionery store next door, barely missing George Herbig, the proprietor.

The robbery was committed in the presence of hundreds of people passing along the street, but the perpetrators had finished the job and were out of sight before any one had time to realize what had happened.

Andrew Aman, the proprietor of the jewelry store, had just closed and was at the cash register counting the day's receipts when the robbery was committed.

CUT OUT SPOONING, ORDERS PROFESSOR.

Pindley, Feb. 21.—"ALL SPOONING MUST BE CUT OUT WITHIN THE SCHOOLROOM AND LOBBIES DURING THE SCHOOL HOURS."

Stannely, but forcefully, this warning fell upon the astonished vision of the 100 students at a local business college yesterday, and shocked them into a realization that "life is real," earnest and not other pleasant things.

It is to be war on the boy god and trouble for the professors, for "spooning" is the rage in that institution. Recently several classes were dismissed, it is stated, because love-love lads and lassies seemed more intent on "higher" education than a business course.

Already the students are rebelling, and Cupid is carrying a big stick. Interest in developments is keen.

CITY ELECTIONS

Held Throughout Pennsylvania, Results Being Mixed.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—The spring municipal elections were held throughout Pennsylvania. Philadelphia elected two magistrates, 17 select and 14 common councilmen, 12 school directors in each of the 42 wards, constables and division election officers. Little interest was displayed in the contest for magistrate and each party named only one candidate. In some of the wards the City party and Lincoln party organizations, which swept the city last November, were split and were fighting each other, with the help of factions from old Republican organizations or the Democrats.

Reform Ticket Wins.

Pittsburg, Feb. 21.—Returns in the municipal election in this city indicate the election of George W. Guthrie, Civic League, Citizens' and Democratic candidate for mayor, by a majority of about 6,000 over Alexander M. Jeckinson, Republican. In Allegheny the vote is close. Returns indicate the election of Charles F. Kirschler (Rep.) over George B. Loren, candidate of the good government party.

Would Legalize Strikes

London, Feb. 21.—A blue book has been issued giving the voluminous report of the royal commission on trade disputes and combinations. The commission recommends the passing of an act declaring trade unions to be legal associations and strikes legal unless accompanied by violence or breach of contract, and also declaring that persuasion to strike apart from procuring a breach of contract, is not illegal.

DETECTIVE

In the Employ of the Mine Operators. Charge Against Orchard.

Denver, Feb. 21.—The Times says: "Felix Orchard, who is under arrest in Idaho, charged with assassinating former Governor Steunenberg, and who has made a confession charging the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners with instigating a number of dynamite outrages and murders, was in the employ of the Cripple Creek Mine Owners' association as a detective during the great strike in the Cripple Creek district. This most important fact will be used in the defense of the accused labor leaders, when they are brought to trial in the courts of Idaho. Orchard was a member of the Western Federation of Miners and employed in the Cripple Creek district when the famous strike was ordered."

Patrick J. Duffy

GUSSIE HART NOT MURDERED

New York, Feb. 21.—The police of New York were called upon to investigate the death of Gussie Hart, an actress, 50 years of age, who died in a cab while being taken to her home by several companions. The matter at first was reported as a possible murder and several arrests were made. It developed, however, that the woman had fallen down a flight of 20 steps at an uptown cafe, where she had spent several hours with a party of friends. Her skull was fractured and she was hurried home.

(Muncie Star.)

Patrick J. Duffy, a south Walnut street saloonist, who was in charge of the affairs of Harry Slater, the noted criminal, at the time of his death at Lima, O., a few weeks ago, has been named as a defendant in a suit brought by Dr. U. S. Beam to recover $705 for medical service. Besides Duffy there are three other defendants, Red Nichols, Elizabeth J. Holeran and Patrick J. Holeran. Beam is a Lima physician who waited on Slater during his fatal illness which resulted from a bullet wound inflicted by a Lima officer. Slater was believed to have been the leader of the gang which robbed the Ridgeville and Hagerstown banks, several months ago. Although charged with the crime, Slater professed his innocence to the end.

Duffy Slater's Friend.

Duffy, of this city, befriended Slater to the last. Dr. Beam claims that he attended Slater with the understanding that Duffy and the other three defendants were to advance the pay. The Lima physician performed several minor operations and attended the injured man until his death. The medical man alleges that he has attempted to collect the bill, but that he has been successful in collecting but $80 of his account which was originally $735. He had only a verbal contract with the defendant but states he has evidence that the four people promised to defray the expenses.

Two of Slater's friends are now confined in the Delaware county jail charged with wrecking the safe of the Ridgeville bank. They are James Donovan and "Fingers" Burke, who were arrested by Detective Fletcher, of Winchester. Donovan had a set of safe-wrecking tools on his person when arrested. Both men deny that they were allies of Slater or that they were ever connected with him in any of his expeditions.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Lima Citizens Can Tell You About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Lima people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Lima reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

Mrs. H. B. Core, of 522 west High street, Lima, O., says: "If asked to state my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, I could only repeat the testimonial I gave in 1895. This remedy was used in our family at that time for kidney complaint and backache, and with such gratifying results that I made a public statement telling of our experience and recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to others. It is my opinion that any case of kidney trouble which Doan's Pills won't cure is beyond help."

SECRETARY TAFT

Alludes to Ohio Conditions and Is Mentioned For President

Bay City, Mich., Feb. 21.—Secretary of War Taft received a great ovation in Bay City. He came here to address the second annual banquet of the Bay County McKinley Republican club. William A. Norton of St. Johns, Mich., alluding to Secretary Taft as President Roosevelt's successor, caused enthusiastic acclamation of the guest of honor. In his address Secretary Taft said: "There is a very wide difference between an organization that energetically works for good ends and an organization that depends on patronage to gain its own ends. Because the gang—the machine, the boss—use the power of organization those who want good government should not eschew organization. The only permanent remedy for the evils is for the younger men to take an interest in good government. I hope we are waking up in Ohio. I'm not entirely sure that we are waking up permanently. We will see."

INDIAN LANDS

Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate committee on Indian affairs agreed tentatively on amendments to the house bill winning up the affairs of the five civilized tribes commission. The committee will meet Thursday to report the measure to the senate. The amendments adopted prohibit full-blood Indians from selling their homesteads under any conditions, and require them to obtain the consent of the secretary of the interior to sell surplus lands. Tribal members other than full-bloods are required to obtain the consent to sell their homesteads, but all restrictions are removed from their disposing of surplus lands.

Turned
White

After a Night of Horror Miner's Hair Was Gray.

Between a Snake and a Robber
He Had Not Slept Much
and For Hours Expected Death.

Rev. T. Percival Bates of Newark,
N. J., talked about his travels the other evening to a club of young men attached to St. Paul's Episcopal church, says the Washington Post. Among other things he told of one night he spent while on an expedition to the great falls of the Zambezi, in South Africa, when the party camped in the forest and told stories around the fire.

In the company were Oxford and Cambridge men, a graduate of Yale and another from Princeton, and somehow they got talking about Byron's "Prisoner of Chillon." Some one asked the question if it were possible for a

THE SNAKE BIT THE ROBBER.

man's hair to turn white in a single night. There was a brisk discussion on the point until some one said:

"We'd better let old Bill Lee, sitting over there, settle the debate. How about it, Bill?"

The man addressed told a story, a true one, of his own experiences in answer.

He said that some years before he had been mining farther down the country in a camp filled with all sorts of strange characters. His claim was about two miles out of the mining settlement.

Usually he washed out his gold at the end of each day and took it to the bank.
But once it so happened that for two days he was too tired at nightfall to take his gold in. On the evening of the third day he took all his washings in gold dust for the three days and, digging a hole in the ground within his tent, buried it and built his campfire over it.

After his supper he lighted a candle,
stuck it on a box and, lying down, sank into the slumber of the healthfully tired. After a time he was awakened by a feeling of something cold stealing up his right leg. He did not raise his body, but in the dim light of the candle
he was able to make out the lower end of one of the most poisonous snakes in Africa, a snake whose bite is fatal.

Lee knew that if he moved his leg the snake would bite him, and he lay motionless for some time wondering what to do. After a time it occurred to him if the snake crawled to his abdomen it would surely cause him to move, which would arouse the serpent to strike, so he cautiously reached down and tightened his belt, which he had loosened.

The snake moved forward slowly and steadily. He could feel its cold, clammy body ascending with the slowness of the hour hand of the clock, and the deliberateness of its motion caused an indescribable horror to rise in him, and the cold sweat broke out on his body. He tried to resign himself to death. Strangely and swiftly the story of his whole life began to pass before his mental vision. Dead, long, long since forgotten came rushing back into his memory in troops.

He stretched out one hand and felt about the ground until his fingers came upon a nail. He then panted about until he could fasten his fingers over the edge of an empty meat tin, and,
bringing the tin to his chest, he slowly scratched a message to his sister in the hope that those who found his body would also light upon the scrawl, be able to decipher and transcribe it and send it to the address he painfully etched on the tin.

Then he composed himself for death,
with the empty meat can on his chest,
all the time feeling the slow advance of the deadly thing along his leg. He thinks he sank into a sort of stupor or trance, but again consciousness came to him, and he found himself devising a new scheme for extricating himself from his danger.

He decided to try to get his knife out of his pocket, open it and cut the pocket out of his trousers, in the hope that when the snake reached that point in its journey up his leg it would thrust its head through and that then he might seize it back of the head, hold it so it could not bite and crush its life out. By dint of slow maneuvering Lee finally got out his knife and cut out his pocket and the cloth above it. But when the snake reached the hole it felt the cold air, from which it had sought refuge in his trousers leg, and did not come out. He sank into a trance, and after a time he was aroused by feeling a cold pressure on his forehead. He opened his eyes and looked up. He saw the form of a man bending over him and heard a hoarse voice say:

"Don't move or I'll blow your brains out!"

"Blow 'em out, old man, if it will give you any pleasure," he answered.
"I don't care what you do."

The man was no doubt one of the desperate characters from the nearby camp. He had probably noted that Lee had not gone to the bank for three days and figured on laying his hands on a fat little pile of gold dust.

He groped around the tent, searching for Lee's pile. He emptied this and cans, poked into Lee's chest, looked everywhere, and finally approached Lee himself.

The latter lay motionless, as he had now dozed for hours. Then the man stooped down and began feeling for Lee's pocket. He found it and innocently thrust his hand into the hole which Lee had cut in his trousers leg.

On the instant the snake struck and bit the robber. There was a scream of agony, and the desperado was dancing about the tent in pain and mortal fear, for he knew full well what it was that had struck him.

The snake, having vented its anger, wriggled away, and the next thing Lee heard was the desperado calling for an ax. He found an ax, and without an instant's hesitation he stretched his hand across a log and severed his thumb and two fingers and by so doing saved his life, for the poison had not yet got into his system.

Lee staggered to his feet and did what he could to bind up the man's bleeding hand, gave him a drink of whisky and sent him packing off toward the mining town for medical aid.
Soon the morning came, and then Lee discovered that his hair had turned white in a single night.

WOMAN STALKED
BY LIONS

An Adventure With the Noble
Beasts in East Africa.

Mrs. L. Hinde, whose husband is subcommissioner of the British East Africa protectorate, has had the remarkable experience of being stalked by lions and the still more remarkable fortune of living to tell the tale. It was on the Uganda railway, in a spot historic for the ravages of man-eating lions, that Mrs. Hinde met with the thrilling adventure which she relates.

Camping out, the party to which Mrs.
Hinde was coupled heard with herid regularity the screams of the wretched victims as they were carried off for the man-eater's nightly repasts.

The camp was seventy miles from the nearest connecting link with the outside world, and communication had to be kept up daily by native mail runners. It was the habit of the lions to keep pace to the long grass with the runners on the track and, having se-

SHE SAW SIX LIONS FOLLOWING HER.

lected the most appetizing member of the party, to pounce upon him and carry him off into the bush.

On one occasion when out mapmaking Mr. and Mrs. Hinde came upon a party of a dozen lions, possibly the man-eating troop. Mr. Hinde fired twice, dropping two of the beasts. He then suggested that Mrs. Hinde should ride back to camp while he approached the two lions, who might be dangerous
even though mortally hit.

After riding for half an hour Mrs.
Hinde looked back and saw six of the lions following her. The two native gun bearers ran away, leaving her unarmed, alone with her sals, an hour from camp.

She set off at a fast gallop, the sals running by her side. In their path arose an angry rhinoceros, which fled from them on to the lions.

Mrs. Hinde reached camp in safety, while Mr. Hinde was held up by the rhinoceros, on which he did not venture to fire for fear of turning it on Mrs.
Hinde.

A GEORGE WASHINGTON LUNCHEON.

Here are directions for a Washington's Birthday Luncheon:

Put a huge bowl of yellow tulips

in the center of the dining table.

Blue and yellow are the colonial colors. Use yellow candles and blue plates and dishes.

At each place lay a bonbon box in the form of a hatchet, with a bunch of artificial cherries tied to the handle with red, white and blue ribbon, or a paper cocked hat filled with candied cherries.

At a stationer's you may obtain cards decorated with a cut of George Washington's head. It gives a pretty effect to draw in gold paint

a narrow frame about the cut, with a bowknot at top. Under this place the guest's name, the date and a quotation from Washington.

Fold the napkins into cocked hats,

and in your dishes of almonds,

olives and bonbons put little American flags.

Serve this menu

Grape Fruit, with Brandied

Cherries.

Cream of Chicken Soup.

Smelts, with Sauce Tartare.

Fried Sweetbreads, with Peas and

New Potatoes.

Celery and Salad in Green Peppers.

Cheese Straws and Olives.

Ice Cream, Hatchets, Cake, Coffee.

Place two large brandied cherries

in the center of the halved grape fruit. Serve the soup in cups with whipped cream on the top, passing hot toasted crackers. The smelts should have a little water cress on the plate and a bit of lemon.

For the salad use sliced lettuce and celery, mix with mayonnaise, and fill green peppers, from which the seeds have been removed. Serve on lettuce leaf.

If there is no caterer near to serve you with hatchets of ice cream, put the cream in cocked hats of paper or slice a brick of cream, and serve brandied cherries on the top of each slice.

Lost in One of the Most Exciting

Games of the Season at the Auditorium Last Night

VISITORS PLAY ROWDY BALL AND PUT UP A BATTLE ROYAL.

NOW LETS HAVE A GAME WITH THE KENTON FIVE. WHY NOT?

Thrilling was the game of last night, to say the least, when New York with their robust team met the White Stars. It proved to be a regular foot ball game. In the first half Lima was hardly prepared for the fray, as one wouldn't judge the foreigners to be such ruffians at a mere glance, but when Lima found that it wasn't to be child's play they spruced up and dug into them proper in the second half, scoring fast and frequent, but the whistle blew just a minute too soon for Lima to put a grand finish to their score, the game finishing with New York 22 points to Lima's 21.

The Score:
New York 22—Clark, f. 5; Bannan, f. 1; McGraw, c. 2; Varley, g. 2; Coffey, g. 1.
Lima 21—Shaw, f. 2; Akerman, f. 3; Landick, c. 2; Witmer, g. 1; Klump, g.
Free throws—Clark, 2; Shaw, 7.

Hope of the Horsemen

May at Last Be Realized in the Buckeye State.

POOL-SELLING BILLS WERE READ YESTERDAY FOR FIRST TIME

IN THE LEGISLATURE, AND, IF PASSED, WOULD ROOM THE HARNESS HORSE SPORT IN OHIO—THE TEXT.

Columbus, Ohio, February 21.—What have all the earmarks of pool-selling bills, although they were denied as such by George Detrick, who requested Senator Pollock, of Stark county, to introduce them, were read for the first time today. One provides that any corporation or association for the improvement or development of horses, or any agricultural society, may conduct race courses, but there are certain stipulations or regulations which they must pass through in order to do so legally. For instance, application must be made to the Auditor of State, giving the name of the corporation and other requirements, particularly as to what the purposes are, and that official shall grant a license if he sees fit. Such licenses are good from June 1 to November 1 of each year. No race course can be run more than fourteen days, and not more than one week at a time. On January 1 of each year a report is to be made, and 1 per cent of the prize money, whether it be on stock or products, is to be turned into the State Agricultural Department and divided among the authorized societies of the state. But further along the bill reads in such a manner as one would construe it as being against pool selling or bookmaking or any other sort of gambling, for it says that any person who, upon any race course or fair grounds authorized to enjoy the benefits of the proposed act, shall make or record, directly or indirectly, any bet or wager on the result of any trial contest of speed or power of endurance of horses taking place shall forfeit the value of any money wagered, received or held by him, to be recovered by civil action by the person with whom the wager is made or the money or property is deposited.

This penalty, as it is called, is "exclusive," except in another provision holds it to be a misdemeanor, with a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500. Races held in connection with an exhibition of agriculture or stock products are not a violation. If an officer abets or in any way assists in allowing any form of gambling to exist he shall be held responsible, and not the Board of Trustees or other officer of the corporation or association, other than himself. There must be plenty of placards posted throughout the grounds in conspicuous places bearing admonitions against pool selling, making books or any other gambling, for that matter.

However, the whole thing summed up seems to change such violations from offenses that may carry with them jail sentences or even worse, and fixes them in the class of plain misdemeanors. The second bill, which regulates probably the penalties one would have to suffer for having violated laws along the line of such as have mentioned, provides for an amendment to Section 6939-a, Revised Statutes of Ohio, which covers such violations. The new matter as provided for the amendment to the section reads, "except when another penalty is provided by law the fine shall not be less than $5 and more than $500," while further along it says, "when an 'executive' penalty is provided by law for an act hereby prohibited the permitting of the use of the premises for the doing of an act in such case shall not be deemed a violation hereof." This bill could not be picked out in a century scarcely as relating whatever to the first bill had not they been presented at the same time. Mr. Detrick, in explaining the measure, was most emphatic in his denial that they were bills to legalize the sale of pools or the making of books on race tracks, but that is regulated the same as the New York law, of which the bills are practical copies, as many of the points are used. Senator Pollock stated that both bills had the approval of General Isaac Sherwood.

OVER FIVE HUNDRED SINGERS WILL BE HERE TO PARTICIPATE.

A WELL PLANNED PROGRAM HAS BEEN PREPARED FOR THIS EISTEDDFOD.

The committee in charge of the Eisteddfod spent a great deal of time arranging the program so that each session would be of the highest interest. The entries of over five hundred singers assure the greatest success of any Eisteddfod held in North-western Ohio in recent years. The program for Thursday morning embraces some of the most pleasing numbers of the program, among which may be mentioned the male quartette on Gabels "Annie Laurie," a solo for persons under eighteen years of age "Sing Me to Sleep," the recitation for the junior, the tenor and bass duet, "Hunting Song," the piano solo, the beautiful bass solo "O, God Have Mercy," and the Ladies' Chorus competition Venedicta, Ottawa, Findlay and Lima will contest on the male quartette.

There are half a dozen entries on the tenor and bass duet, on which the three best will be chosen to sing on the stage. The bass solo has a dozen entries, and the same rule will obtain. In this instance the three choicest singers will be heard by the audience. The piano solo presents a very keen competition, with ten contestants. Ladies' Chorus contest should be particularly pleasing to the ladies of the city. Ada, Spencer, Gomer and Lima will enter this competition. The chief distinctive ceremonies of the Eisteddfod occur at the morning session, which will be presided over by Hon. Thos. H. Jones, of Lima. It is hoped that the bardic salutations will be made in accordance with the old customs of the Welsh people. Do not miss the morning session of the Eisteddfod.

Don't go on your friend's bond, send them to me, and I will put a Surety Company on it—This advice is free, but if needed may save you considerable money. P. A. Kahle, Holmes Block. Both 'phones. sat-mon-wed.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

Mrs. Susan Knoppenberger, one of the few women oil operators in the Trenton Rock field, located at St. Marys, has made an assignment to A. C. Bachler in Auglaize county. The assets are estimated at $7,000, liabilities $5,000. For several years past Mrs. Knoppenberger has operated extensively in oil, being the owner of a number of producing wells. She and her late husband went to St. Marys in the early days of the St. Marys oil excitement, and to Mr. Knoppenberger is due the opening up of the once famous reservoir pool, in the latter part of 1890, when he drilled in the well on the Silvers farm, on the north edge of the artificial lake, that flowed 500 barrels and set the oil world going toward St. Marys. Mr. Knoppenberger was also the first operator to venture into the waters of the reservoir to drill a well, which was located a distance of 2500 feet out in the lake from the north bank. The well only pumped 30 barrels and the expense was too great for the size of the wells. The drilling in of the Silvers farm gusher gave to Mr. Knoppenberger the name of "oil king," and he retained that title until his death. Mrs. Knoppenberger continued to operate but not with the success that her husband had.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS

At Home, with Mrs. Hallie R. Hoover, 123 North West Street, February 22, 1906. Dime for Charity. Hours from 2 to 6.

Several hundred of the above invitations have been issued by the ladies of Mart Armstrong Woman's Relief Corps, No. 94, for this, their annual Martha Washington reception.

Arrangements have been completed for a cordial and pleasant hour with the hostess in her beautiful home and the ladies of the corps. The afternoon seems pretty full with the many social and musical gatherings, but the ladies hope to meet and exchange greetings with their many friends the same as if nothing else was on the program.

The coffee, that favorite American drink, will be prepared by an expert and you will all want to learn the secret of its brewing.

COMBINE SMASHED

And There Will Be No Advance in the Doctor's Bill

Some few days ago a meeting of the physicians of the city was held for the purpose of discussing the advisability of advancing the rates for medical attendance, and a report was sent broadcast that rates would go up. Many of the physicians were opposed to the idea, and refused to jump into the band wagon, charging the regulation price which has been in existence here for years.

The friction between the two factions has increased daily until last night at a meeting called expressly for that purpose, the proposed advance in rates was knocked out.

The St. Marys Leader referring to the combine as the Pill Trust, says: "A few days ago this paper contained the announcement that the doctors of Lima had attempted to form a combination for the boosting of prices, and that the people of that city were praying to be delivered from trust domination. Now, it would seem that the prayers of the righteous availeth much, as the 'Pill Trust' is already suffering from premature decay."

The above statement is slightly wrong.

The doctors of Lima met last night and instead of the combination being smashed as is stated above, the physicians decided to increase the price of day visits from $1.00 to $1.50 and office prescriptions from 50 cents up to from 75 cents up. The members of the Allen County Medical Society are in no way connected with this move.

MOORE'S BEER GARDEN—POLICE CHASE WOULD BE BURG-LAR—FIRE SEVERAL SHOTS.

Officers Kelly and Anderson at two o'clock this morning discovered a man trying to break into Moore's garden on east Wayne street. The burglar discovered them at about the same time and gave the police a merry chase down Wayne street. Several shots were fired but the fellow kept on going and lost his pursuers on north Jackson street.

CONLEY

SAYS HE IS IN FAIR SHAPE FOR THE MATCH WITH AKERMAN FRIDAY NIGHT.

Manager Finley, of the Auditorium, received the following letter from Edward Conley this morning: Conley is to wrestle with Akerman at the Auditorium next Friday night.

Steubenville, O., Feb. 21, 1906. MANAGER AUDITORIUM.

Dear Sir—Will drop you a line to let you know I am in fair condition at present to meet Mr. Akerman. I expect to beat Ak, if I don't I will have no excuse to make whatever. This Akerman is one of the toughest in the business and is hard to beat. The public will see one of the best matches ever pulled off in Lima. I claim to be as clever as any in the business.

Ed. Santly, better known as Ed Conley.

HEAR MRS. FISKE THIS EVENING AT MAY'S OPERA HOUSE AT PIQUA.

A number from this city will go to Piqua late this afternoon to hear Mrs. Fiske at May's Opera House. Piqua promises to excel Findlay, as the indications are that that city will be the mecca tonight of theatregoers from Dayton, Lima, Union City, Wapakoneta, and many other surrounding towns. What Findlay was to Toledo, Piqua will be to Dayton. That city is also under trust control and for that reason Mrs. Fiske the foremost actress in America, cannot play there. The nearest opportunity Dayton theatregoers will have to see Mrs. Fiske and her remarkable company in "Leah Kleschna" will be at Piqua and the indications are that they will come in large numbers. The Dayton and Troy Traction company is so sanguine of the results that it is advertising in the Dayton papers that special cars will bring theatregoers to Piqua and back for Mrs. Fiske's performance. The same will be done by the Western Ohio Traction company for Lima's patronage, and by other traction lines leading into Piqua. Mrs. Fiske's engagement will excel in brilliancy any dramatic event in the history of Piqua.

It is said that Manager May will also give away a beautiful souvenir to the ladies on this occasion.

If you want keys made, locks, umbrellas or wringers repaired, saws filed, knives scissors or razors sharpened, go to A. T. Crow's Gun Shop, Collins block 3-31*

LIMA BOYS

ARE MAKING A HIT IN THE MUSICAL WORLD IN CALIFORNIA.

The following is taken from a Los Angeles California paper and concerns two former Lima boys.

During the first intermission at the Venetian Gardens tonight Messrs. Chaney & Clark will entertain with their specialty, introducing refined black and wing dancing and coon song successes. This team is of the highest order, their appearance in this line has won them fame as the vaudeville circuits, and Venice will have the good fortune of seeing them in their original skit before departing for Frisco, where they begin an engagement on the circuit. They assure us of twenty minutes of good song and dance.

Miss Viola McQuown has returned from Lafayette, Ind.

DORCAS SOCIETY NOTICE.

The Dorcas Society will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alexander, 721 North Main street.

Mrs. Clem Eyster of Madison street will entertain the Evangeline club tomorrow afternoon.

M. C. J. Cross of Pittsburgh, who has been in California on a business trip, stopped off over Sunday to visit his parents of Jameson avenue.

In celebrating the birthday of George Washington, the Women's Relief Corps also celebrate the birthday of Mart Armstrong, the brave soldier, Lima's hero, from whom the Post and Corps of this city take their name.

NOTICE TO NEWS SUBSCRIBERS.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THE DAILY NEWS IS DESIROUS THAT ITS READERS RECEIVE THE VERY BEST SERVICE IT IS POSSIBLE TO GIVE. THE CARRIER BOYS, SOME OF THEM, HAVE BEEN CARELESS IN THE DELIVERY OF PAPERS AND IF THE SUBSCRIBERS WILL ONLY NOTIFY THIS OFFICE WHEN THE PAPER IS MISSED THE TROUBLE WILL BE SPEEDILY RECTIFIED.
